This is an awesome modern monopitch roof home.

Large enough for the whole family. The space has been used very well with minimum hallway. Nice shape makes the most of sun without being too long. This design would look great in town or country. Kitchen comes standard with soft close drawers and engineered stone top. Bathrooms have tiled floors and showers.

Shown in plaster and linea cladding, which suits the monopitch style. – but would sit comfortably in the country in this style.

- Fantastic kitchen and walk in pantry
- Study
- Loads of storage
- Modern design with monopitch roof
